ASHES-There is a downward feeling in the market and buyers are indisposed to take hold unless at a concession in rates. Still sales have been made of 125 to 156 bbls Pots at 5624. A small sale has been made at a slight decline on this rate, but the above is the current quotation. In Pearls there has not been much done. We hear of some 75 barrels part 6 00, part at 5 94, and small lots at 5 874. The market rate is 5.94, which is the highest any quality could be sold for. The bills out to-day are about 250 bbls. The arrivals are light, some 100 bbls of both descriptions. COTTON-There is rather more doing than before the

Some large receivers will not sell at this price, but are storing. Flat Ohio and Michigan 4 184 a 4 25, the lower rate for fair common brands. Round Obio is not very plenty and wanted. We hear of a sale of 300 bbls for shipment at 4 12;, but it is not to be had freely at that price. A lot of 2000 bbls is in negotiation for the East Indies, an extra brand. We can quote no actual improvement in prices, but whereas before holders were anxious to sell at current rates, to-day the anxiety is rather more on the part of the buyer. We hear of no sales New-Orleans-the bid is $4 00, and holders prefer generally to store. Southern is again quiet with retail sales. DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES .-DECISIONS .- Thomas D. Lee .- In this case the Court decided that owing a debt of a fiduciary character does not prevent a decree as to other debts. Evidence of former af-duence will not, of itself, interdict a bankrupt's petition. It must be shown that he had property immediately before filing his petition. Objections overruled, and decree al-

Maynard Bragg .- A schedule can only be falsified by proof. Description of occupation is not absolutely requisite to a voluntary petition, and the term "gentleman," instead of "merchant," under the circumstances of the present case, is not a bar. Proceedings will be stopped by the Court, however, where there appears to be design in suppressing, or where a false occupation is given. Misapplication of property in 1840 is not a bar to a decree under the act. Chestiens overselved. ctions overruled.

Edward P. Hayer and Henry A. Hayer -On a former decision Mr. James Suydam was anthorized to sell the stock of bardware. Subsequent application was made by a majority of the creditors that Mr. Suydam be appointed assistant assignee (under the general assignee) for the settlement o the estate. As the expense is to be borne by the estate, and the creditors consequently parties to it, the application is granted. The Court, however, remarked that it must not be understood an assistant will be added to the official assignees at the instance of a part only of the creditors, unless the petition is supported by strong reasons and proofs.

SUPERIOR COURT .- Solomon and H. W. Knee land vs. Charles St. John .- Action on a draft relative to the sale of some morus multicaulis, on which $1,900 had already been paid. Verdict for plaintiffs $2,309 13, deducting amount paid.

James Funck and others vs. Jean J. Merian and Charles Bernard.-Relative to some freight taken by the Havre packet Baltimore. Verdict for plaintiff $349 62. COMMON PLEAS .- Hunter vs. Mills & Howell.

Abraham Mills, one of the defendants, on the 2d of June obained a judgement in the Marine Court against M. West and on the same day took out an execution and placed it is the hands of Wm. M. Howell, the other defendant. Howell proceeded to the Tombs, and there made a levy on a lot o timber belonging, as plaintiffs say, to Messrs. Hunter. West had made a contract with the Corporation to put up a cu pola on the Halls of Justice. That contract West assigned to Hunter on the day that Mills obtained judgement against him. Hunter replevined, contending that he owned the timber taken, which was placed in the street for the erection of the cupola. Verdict for plaintiff.

CIRCUIT COURT-Trial of cases adjourned to Monday. COURT OF OVER AND TERMINER .- The trial of Munroe Edwards occupied the whole day. The principal testimony of interest was that of a hotel keeper at Alex andria, identifying Edwards as having put up at his house in the latter part of August and beginning of September 1841, under the name of John P. Caldwell-and of a clerk belonging to the Alexandria Post-Office, who delivered to Edwards, at that time, letters addressed to Caldwell. The case will not probably go to the Jury till to-morrow after COURT OF SESSIONS .- The Grand Jury came into Court with a number of bills, and the following presentment: -The Grand Jury, for the Octobe PRESENTMENT - term of the Court of General Sessions, in and for the City and County of New York, respectfully present, that in dis charge of a duty established by custom, they have visited the several humane and criminal institutions under the control of the City Government, viz.: the Almskouse, the Long Island Farm, the Lunatic Asylum and Penitentiary upon Blackwell's Island, and also the City Prison. These, under the able management of the Board of Com-missioners and the several Superintendents, Psysicians and keepers, leave no room for complaint, but are found to be all that can be expected from them, as relates to good order, cleanliness and comfort of the inmates.

The whole number of inmates, prisoners, paupers, values of inmates, prisoners, paupers, values of inmates. grants, orphans and other destitute children, and lunatics, is now 3799, of which 2712 are in the alms-house department and 1087 in the several prisons: of the 2712 in the alms-house 356 are in the hospital at Bellevue; 329 lunatics are in the asylum upon Blackwell's Island, and 791 children, &c., are at the Long Island farms and nurseries, leaving 1,236 in the alms-house proper.

Of the 1.087 in the prisons, 93 are in the penitentiary de Of the 1,087 in the perisons, 35 are in the peritentary de-partment at Bel'evne, 396 females and 413 males are in the prison on Blackwell's Island, and 136 in the city prison. The Lunatic Asylum is nearly or quite filled to its capacity. It is a noble monument to the philanthropy of this city, and it deserves the high commendation of all; but it will require to be extended and enlarged ere long.

The out building upon Blackwell's Island, used as a hos-pital for females, is inadequate to their accommodation, and pital for females, is inadequate to their accommodation, and requires to be enlarged. The cost of which, it is understood, will not exceed five bendred dollars. Of the school on the Long I-land Farms, for the pauper children, the grand jury would speak in terms of high commendation. To witness several hundreds of these helpless beings so carefully nursed and educated by the public bounty, and watched over by the Commissioners and Public School Trustees, carries along with the spectacle feelings congenial with our best desires. It is, however, painful to say that much of that loathsome disease, the opthalmia, and its direful effects, are yet visible among the children, and the Grand Jury would entertain the hope that farther efforts would be made to eradicate it.

Of the large number of 1,236 in the Alms-House proper.

the Superintendent informed the Jury that there are over 500 able bodied persons who, if they can be kept from spiritous liquors, are capable of earning their own subsistence rous least doing much toward it.

The Grand Jury would, therefore, and in accordance with their own views, call the attention of the public authorities to the subject. Believing that by a united effort on their part and that of the very efficient Board of Commissioners, a plan to employ and make available the labor of all such, by the establishment of workhouses and farm labor schools, upon one of the islands upon the Long Island Farms, already owned by the public, may be accomplished.

praims, arready owners by the paonic, may be accountified in support of the suggestion, as it is manifest that to compel the drunk and and idler to work within a workshop or upon a farm will benefit them and lessen their number.

Of a farm school for labor &c. for minors of both sexes, such as exists in the vicinity of Boston, to be established upon the island, now owned and rented out by the Corporation, would be an asylum for that numerous class of minors, who are now seen prowling about our wharves and streets in idleness and wretchedness, having none to care for them, but rather by had advice, and dissolute parents. or them, but rather by bad advice and dissolute parents resulting in their ruin, and at last they are found in our Almshouses, Penitentiary, or the brothel. TRIAL FOR KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE -E mily Pooker was put upon trial for keeping a disorderly house and house of bad fame at No. S Benson street. [The defendant's Counsel put in a special plea in abatement to the indictment, on the alledged ground that the name of the accused was not Emily Tooker, spinster, as stated in the in. dictment, but Emily Tucker, widow. To this the District Attorney answered that the accused was as well known by the name of Emily Tooker as by that of Emily Tucke and that she had been tried before under the name of Emily Tooker for keeping a disorderly house, and convicted; and thereupon took issue on that ground before the Jury It was found, however, that her real name is Emily Tucker. The District Attorney then entered a nolle prosequi in the case, and said he would have her arrested and tried under her real name.]
